Why Dare2BDigital?

- Combine open house, social networking, and game concepts to create a online educational technology showcase that highlights:
-  Institutional or inter-institutional programs & courses representative of what is happening across BC public post-secondary institutions
  -  What really good educational technology supported courses/programs look like
  -  People who are using educational technology and their success stories
  -  Processes and methods of development and implementation
  -  The modeling of, and uses for, new technologies

Web 2.0 Enabled

- Development inspiration from both traditional and contemporary sources including:
-  the “open house” - Dare2BDigital is an online virtual open house for BC’s public post secondary institutions
  -  games - Dare2BDigital uses game elements including teams, skill testing challenges, hosts, prizes, and sponsors into a fun online event
  -  reality television shows - Dare2BDigital transposes selected reality television show ideas to the web including teams taking on a challenge, judges scoring and providing feedback publicly, and audience voting
  -  web 2.0 and social networking - Dare2BDigital uses interactive and social technologies including blogs, discussion forums, user profiles, and webcasts
